

Preschool Public Health Nurses (PPHN)

Work within whānau/family homes, Preschool/Childcare Centre/Te Kōhanga Reo

- Advocate for children and whanāu within a health lens
- Provide health information and advice relevant to children's health, development and wellbeing.
- Offer support on health/issues concerns
- Support health referral pathways
- Network with other agencies that work with children
- Promote safety and welfare of children
- Provide and promote topical health information to schools and parents
- Support teachers to recognise health issues that affect children's learning